Subject: Re: DC Clients + Alex Angeledes June 8th

Thx Sabrina!

I emailed Chris Koepke (Director of CMS) and Laura Salerno (Medicare lead at CMS) asking their interest/availability for the two times. I'll let you know as soon as I hear back.
I'd give it a 50% chance of attending since they are about an hour away.

Thanks Sean! For Navy - what about adding Sean Howard? Would also be good for him + Brian to connect.

Also @Taylor Rizzolino I think this could be interesting to flag to Adam for any USMC end clients. Quantico is a little far but not completely out of reach from DC - no harm in asking.

Great suggestions hang tight on reaching out.

Sabrina – let's see when Stefanie responds back with a specific date and time and And then we can move forward.

This is great! Below are my three suggestions from my book:

Nicole Dorrier, truth
Jamie Federbush, truth
Chris Koepke, CMS

@Sabrina Abuzahra, happy to reach out separately with more client context and their contact info!

Hi Team--

I've spoken with some of you about this and now bringing it all together...

Alex (dynamic speaker from YTI) heads up all M&E sales for Google, which means he is more plugged into the streaming + video + CTV + things like Netflix ad situation than most at Google.

He's in DC on June 8th for an elections summit and we're putting together a one hour roundtable event. It will be pretty informal, but would probably focus on the current and future video landscape. I'm envisioning him giving his Immersion talk to clients and the discussion moving on from there.

Ask: Do we have clients in DC that we would want to invite?

@Esteban Fernandez -- I think we said Nicole at Truth?

@Alyssa Raiola -- Already talked to Brian Scarlett and he's in! I let him know it was 100% yet and that I'd be in touch if/when we finalized details.

Anyone else from our client list? Target audience is either senior most or somewhat close...example senior digital director might not be C suite, but could work if they had budget influence.

Sabrina is going to lead on this while I'm OOO next week.

Thanks,

Sean
